

recycling & product longevity with Smirthwaite

Respected throughout the industry for our technical expertise, we play an active role in helping to shape standards and best practice.

We believe in well-made products that are easy to use and importantly, can stand the test of time.

Here are several reasons why partnering with us for your recycling needs will help reduce your costs and carbon footprint:

Sustainability: reducing the impact on the environment

Leaders in product life expectancy of up to 12 years

Made In Britain; proudly manufactured to exacting standards

Cost effective servicing packages available

MADE IN BRITAIN

Comprehensive & flexible options available

Professional & dedicated regional Technical Product Advisors throughout the UK

Ongoing support for all equipment stores, offering expert advice to aid with recycling initiatives

Dedicated, free of charge product training & workshops for Stores & Prescribers

Agile Teams/Video calling options are available for both assessments & general support

Access to comprehensive product training videos or product adjustments

Smirthwaite measurement guide aligns users with appropriate store products

For further details regarding this leaflet, please contact our customer service team.

Phone Number
212 541 2455

Email Address
info@smirthwaite.com

Website
smirthwaite.com

Social Media
Follow us

